

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
AT STONY BROOK
AND
THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Following the successful cooperation between the State University of New York at Stony Brook, New York, USA and The Chinese University of Hong Kong, HKSAR, China, the two universities hereby confirmed their wish to renew the Memorandum of Understanding which was originally signed on 25 October 2005. Both universities agree to promote academic and educational exchange through the following activities:

1. STAFF EXCHANGE

1.1 Exchange of Academic Staff.

The two universities may nominate their academic staff to participate in an exchange for the purpose of study or lecturing in the other University on a reciprocal basis. The participant is subject to approval by the Host University. The period of exchange will normally be one or two semesters. The Host University will provide a university appointment where appropriate, library and research facilities, and other assistance as far as possible. The Home University will also maintain its academic staff on salary during the period of the exchange. The Host University will assist the visiting academic staff in locating living accommodation.

1.2 Visiting Academic Staff.

In addition to the reciprocal exchanges, either university may invite faculty members of the other university for the purpose of lecturing or consultation for a specified period of time, subject to the approval of the Home University. In such cases the Host University may make appropriate funding arrangements agreed to in advance.

1.3 Visiting Research Fellows.

Either university may nominate one or more of its faculty to visit the other university for the purpose of advanced study or research, subject to the approval of the Host University. In such cases, the Home University may provide the Research Fellow with salary based on the Home University's regulations. The Host University will provide institutional courtesies, library and research facilities and an appropriate academic standing.

2. STUDENT EXCHANGE

2.1 Exchange of Students.

Each university may send students, either undergraduate or postgraduate, to the other University in appropriate fields of study.

2.2 Both universities agree that the exchange program should follow the educational system and regulations of the counterpart university. Students must submit their applications to the Host University through their Home University.

3. CO-OPERATIVE RESEARCH

3.1 Co-operative research is to be encouraged as individual scholars or departments establish contact and develop mutual interests. The cost and conditions of such agreements will be negotiated individually.

4. EXCHANGE OF ACADEMIC MATERIALS

- 4.1 Each university shall exchange relevant materials, such as those relating to the library, on a regular basis. The libraries may also exchange materials for research purposes.

5. TERMS OF CO-OPERATION

- 5.1 The terms of co-operation for each specific activity implemented under this Memorandum of Understanding shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of that activity.
- 5.2 Any such agreement entered into, as outlined above, will form an Appendix to this Memorandum of Understanding.

6. CO-ORDINATION OF THE EXCHANGE

- 6.1 Each university shall designate a Liaison Officer to develop and co-ordinate the specific activities agreed upon. The designated liaison officers for the purposes of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be:

State University of New York at Stony Brook
Dean of International Academic Programs

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Director of Academic Links

Currently: Dr. William Arens

Currently: Prof. Gordon Cheung

- 6.2 Through these offices, either party may initiate proposals for activities and specific details of any such activities will be set forth in a letter of agreement.

7. RENEWAL, TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

- 7.1 This Memorandum shall take effect from the date of the last signature for a period of five (5) years and may be modified or renewed by mutual written consent of the two universities.
- 7.2 The Memorandum may be terminated by either party provided six months written notice is given to the other party.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have offered their signatures:

For State University of New York
at Stony Brook

Dr. Samuel L. Stanley Jr.
President

For The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Professor Joseph Sung
Vice-Chancellor and President
