

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION between

Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, United States and

Kyorin University, Tokyo, Japan

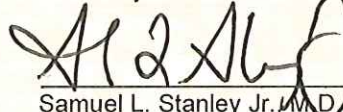

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to promote co-operation between Stony Brook University and Kyorin University in recognition of their common academic and related interests, including the internationalization of their activities.
2. Both institutions agree to cooperate, in ways that are mutually acceptable, in areas including, but not limited to, the following:
 - a) Admission of students on degree or other courses, including language programmes
 - b) Exchange of staff and students
 - c) Exchange of information, academic materials and publications
 - d) Co-operative teaching programmes, research activities and symposia
 - e) Staff development
 - f) Quality assurance
3. Both institutions agree to make and keep faculty, staff and students aware of the academic and research programmes and other educational resources that are available at the cooperating institution. Members of staff of the two institutions will be encouraged to consult and develop specific plans for co-operation.
4. For specific projects and programmes, memoranda will be made in the spirit of this agreement. Such memoranda may be made at the level of the institution as a whole, or with specific parts of the institution. For each specific project or programme, coordinators at each institution shall be appointed in charge of the operation of those activities. When unexpected situations arise, both institutions shall cooperate to the maximum toward solving any issues.
5. Financial support for collaborative programmes will be subject to discussion by the concerned parties.
6. This Agreement, executed in both English and Japanese, takes effect on the date of the last signature. The Agreement will remain in effect for five years and extended automatically every year thereafter unless terminated by either party giving at least six months' notice to the other.
