

APPENDIX, DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM
to the
AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION between the
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
and
AFEKA-TEL AVIV ACADEMIC COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING
ISRAEL

In accordance with Section II of the Agreement of Cooperation by and between the State University of New York at Stony Brook ("Stony Brook") and AFEKA-Tel Aviv Academic College of Engineering ("AFEKA"), this Appendix establishes the terms and conditions of graduate student exchanges.

1. Students from AFEKA may enroll at SBU for graduate studies in the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences ("CEAS") at SBU.
2. Students shall be selected to participate in this program by AFEKA. SBU reserves the right to deny admission to any student not meeting its general admissions criteria and TOEFL score of better than 550 on the paper-based test, or better than 213 on the computer-based test. AFEKA students will be exempted from GRE exams.
3. The dossiers of selected students will be sent to Stony Brook's Office of International Academic Programs no later than February 1 for admission to SBU the following fall. Notification of action taken on such applications will be given to AFEKA officials no later than March 15. For the Spring semester, dossiers will be sent by October 1, with notification of action by November 15.
4. Payment of tuition and academic fees shall be made in accordance with standard policies of SBU. Charges for special classes, courses, and other goods, services, and activities not otherwise levied on regularly enrolled students shall be billed directly to AFEKA students in accordance with standard policies and procedures of SBU, which alone shall be responsible for their collection.
5. SBU shall take all reasonable steps to provide incoming students with on-campus housing in residence halls generally available to its regularly enrolled students. AFEKA students will be billed for such housing and board plans at the same rate charged regularly enrolled SBU students, and will be solely responsible for paying such charges in accordance with standard policies and procedures at SBU.
6. SBU shall help admitted AFEKA students to obtain visas and other documents required by current host country entry and visa requirements. Admitted students remain responsible, at all times, for maintaining appropriate immigrant status. AFEKA students are required to enroll in the mandatory insurance program of the State University of New York, and shall comply with Stony Brook's academic standing and conduct requirements. 1. This Agreement is established for a period of five years, effective on the date of last signature.
2. In order to enhance the efficacy of their cooperative activities, AFEKA and SBU agree that it shall be possible to introduce changes and additions to this Cooperative Agreement by means of mutually agreed upon additional written clauses.
3. At the end of each five-year period, this Agreement will be automatically renewed by mutual agreement for an additional five years, unless AFEKA or SBU provides written notification of a decision to terminate prior to the expiration date. A minimum period of six months notice will be required from either party wishing to terminate the agreement. In the event of termination, all commitments to students participating in the program will be honored by relevant parties.
