AGREEMENT

Between

Korean Education Center
Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in New York

And

State University of New York, Stony Brook
Stony Brook, New York

This agreement made on July 18, 2012, constitutes an understanding between the Korean Education Center, Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in New York (referred to as the “Center” hereafter), a branch office of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology of the Republic of Korea, and the State University of New York at Stony Brook (referred to as “University” hereafter).

The purpose of this agreement is to promote cooperation in educational and professional development activities between the University and the Center that aim at training teacher candidates who pursue a B.A. degree in Asian and Asian American Studies (Adolescent Education for Korean), to obtain the NYSED (New York State Education Department)-certified teaching license for Korean language.

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Center donates the sum of four hundred fifty seven thousand dollars (US$ 457,000) to the University, toward a total term budget of $1,438,000, over five years from 2012 to 2017 in order to successfully establish the Teacher Certification Program for Korean language (referred to as the “Program” hereafter) at the University. The fund is titled the “Teachers’ Program Grant for Korean Language” (referred to as the “Grant” hereafter) and will be used to establish a full-time position of Korean language lecturer and a part-time administrative staff member;

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Center also provides the University with necessary advice and expertise in successfully establishing the Program at the University;

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the University agrees to use the Grant to supplement its budget for establishing and running the Teacher Certification Program for Korean language;

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the University also agrees to initiate the student admission to the Program no later than the fall of 2014, and at the conclusion of the initial five-year period, the program will continue subject to the assessment measures applied to all other academic programs.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Center and the University agree as follows:

1. Term of the Grant

The entire term of the agreement extends from September, 2011 to August, 2017 (six years) while the term for the Grant from the Center runs from September, 2012 to August, 2017 over the span of five years.

2. Grant Disbursement

The Grant will be made according to the positive evaluation of the annual performance of the University on the proposed activities. The first year's payment will be delivered to the University as soon as the signing of this agreement and, starting from the second year, the annual disbursement of the Grant will be made according to the yearly budget projection as below, no later than the end of May each year.

The amount of yearly disbursement of the Grant is as follows:

2012-13	2013-14	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17
$87,346	$89,313	$91,340	$93,428	$95,573

3. Reports by the University

The University regularly reports to the Center on the progress of the Program as follows:

- A. The University submits to the Center an interim report by the end of November each year outlining its activities and achievements in the subject year along with a budget update.
- B. The University submits to the Center an annual working plan outlining all its planned activities related to the Program for the following academic year. The annual working plan should be submitted to the Center no later than June 31st of each year.
- C. Within 60 days after the end of each academic year, the University submits to the Center an annual report, outlining its activities and achievements over the past twelve months. This report will include a budget explaining how the previous year's Grant was spent.
- D. Within 60 days after the termination of the Grant period, the University submits to the Center a final report on the Program including the financial report.

4. Changes or Termination of Agreement

- A. The agreement may be amended by mutual written agreement of the parties.
- B. Change of the provisions or termination of the agreement before the end of the Grant period can be made by either the University or the Center with sixty (60) days' written notice.
- C. On termination of the agreement, the full amount of the remaining budget from the subject year's grant will be returned to the Center, along with any remaining budget unused from the previous year.

5. Governing Law

The Center and the University agree that any dispute relating to the construction of this agreement, or its interpretation or enforcement, shall be held, decided and resolved under the relevant laws of the Republic of Korea and the State of New York, in the United States of America.

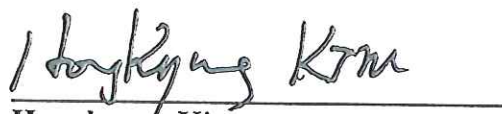

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement by their duly authorized offices as of the date first written above.
